

DESIGN BRIEF

Company Name:

Jaws

Company Description:

We are a company that makes and distributes podcasts. They stand out because they are produced by big names in the industry and available in your local shops. Our target audience is parents. We want to convey a sense of comfort, while at the same time being agreeable.

Job Description

You must create a website that will mainly provide customer support for the company. The goal is to increase sales. Besides the landing page, the website will need a contact page, shop page and a privacy policy page. The landing page should have a About the Team section. There should be a call to action to get users to order a free sample. They would prefer a old-fashioned design, and would like you to use the brand color, which is white. Take into account the client's preferences and values.
